

SOWING SEEDS OF KINDNESS

Self sufficiency, something which Christian Hope strive to bring to the poor parishes where the need is so great. Recently seeds were supplied to the elderly in Kaleere, Uganda. Although they had been educated in seed saving, during the pandemic hunger has made it very hard to save seeds from one harvest to the next planting, so the need was high. We received the following testimonies from Rev Canon Eriab.

Ruth Kobugenyi (63), admitted that she had kept some beans for planting, "... But when my daughter came to check on me, I had nothing to give to her, only I cooked the beans for the sauce," she concluded thanking God for being good.

"I had reserved my 4 cups of beans for planting this season. We didn't eat them at all. I only found them eaten up by the weevils. I remained with bean flour. I really thank God who has used you to come to our rescue. God bless you and our friends who help us." Sarah Namakula said.

Meanwhile in Byumba, Rwanda, CHI were able to supply seed potatoes for growing. Robert, our field assistant there, said this 'We thank God that the activity has been successful and all members who were selected were present, and before they went home, a discussion was held with them together with the Rev for Kageyo Parish, the local church, and the Diocesan Agronom who taught them on how to prepare land, plant, care and the periods of spraying the Irish potatoes so that they can give them good yields.

All the elderly were praising God"

"It is the hard-working farmer who ought to have the first share of the crops"

2Timothy 2:6

Earlier this year we spoke about Rumarangoga, a remote village who lost their church to the bad storms in May. You have helped us offer them the means to rebuild the church, and now the means to improve their way of living by providing goats to people in the community... "You cannot imagine how our hearts are full of joy, we shall take care of the goats in a way that will please you when you come to visit us again and we vow to give out the first kids to our neighbours that have not got the opportunity to receive theirs today. God has given us first today because he loves us and in Christian teachings, we learn that we should share what we have with our neighbours who need it too".
